As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy— Whatever differs from this, to the extent of the difference, is no democracy—

A. Lincoln

DEDICATION

To the memory of Abraham Lincoln, the 16th president of our United States, we dedicate this 1959 edition of Mountain Lore in the year marking the sesquicentennial of his birth.

His kindness and generosity, his wisdom and understanding, will never be forgotten by the people of this country. America will always love this native son, this Great Emancipator.

OUR MOUNTAIN

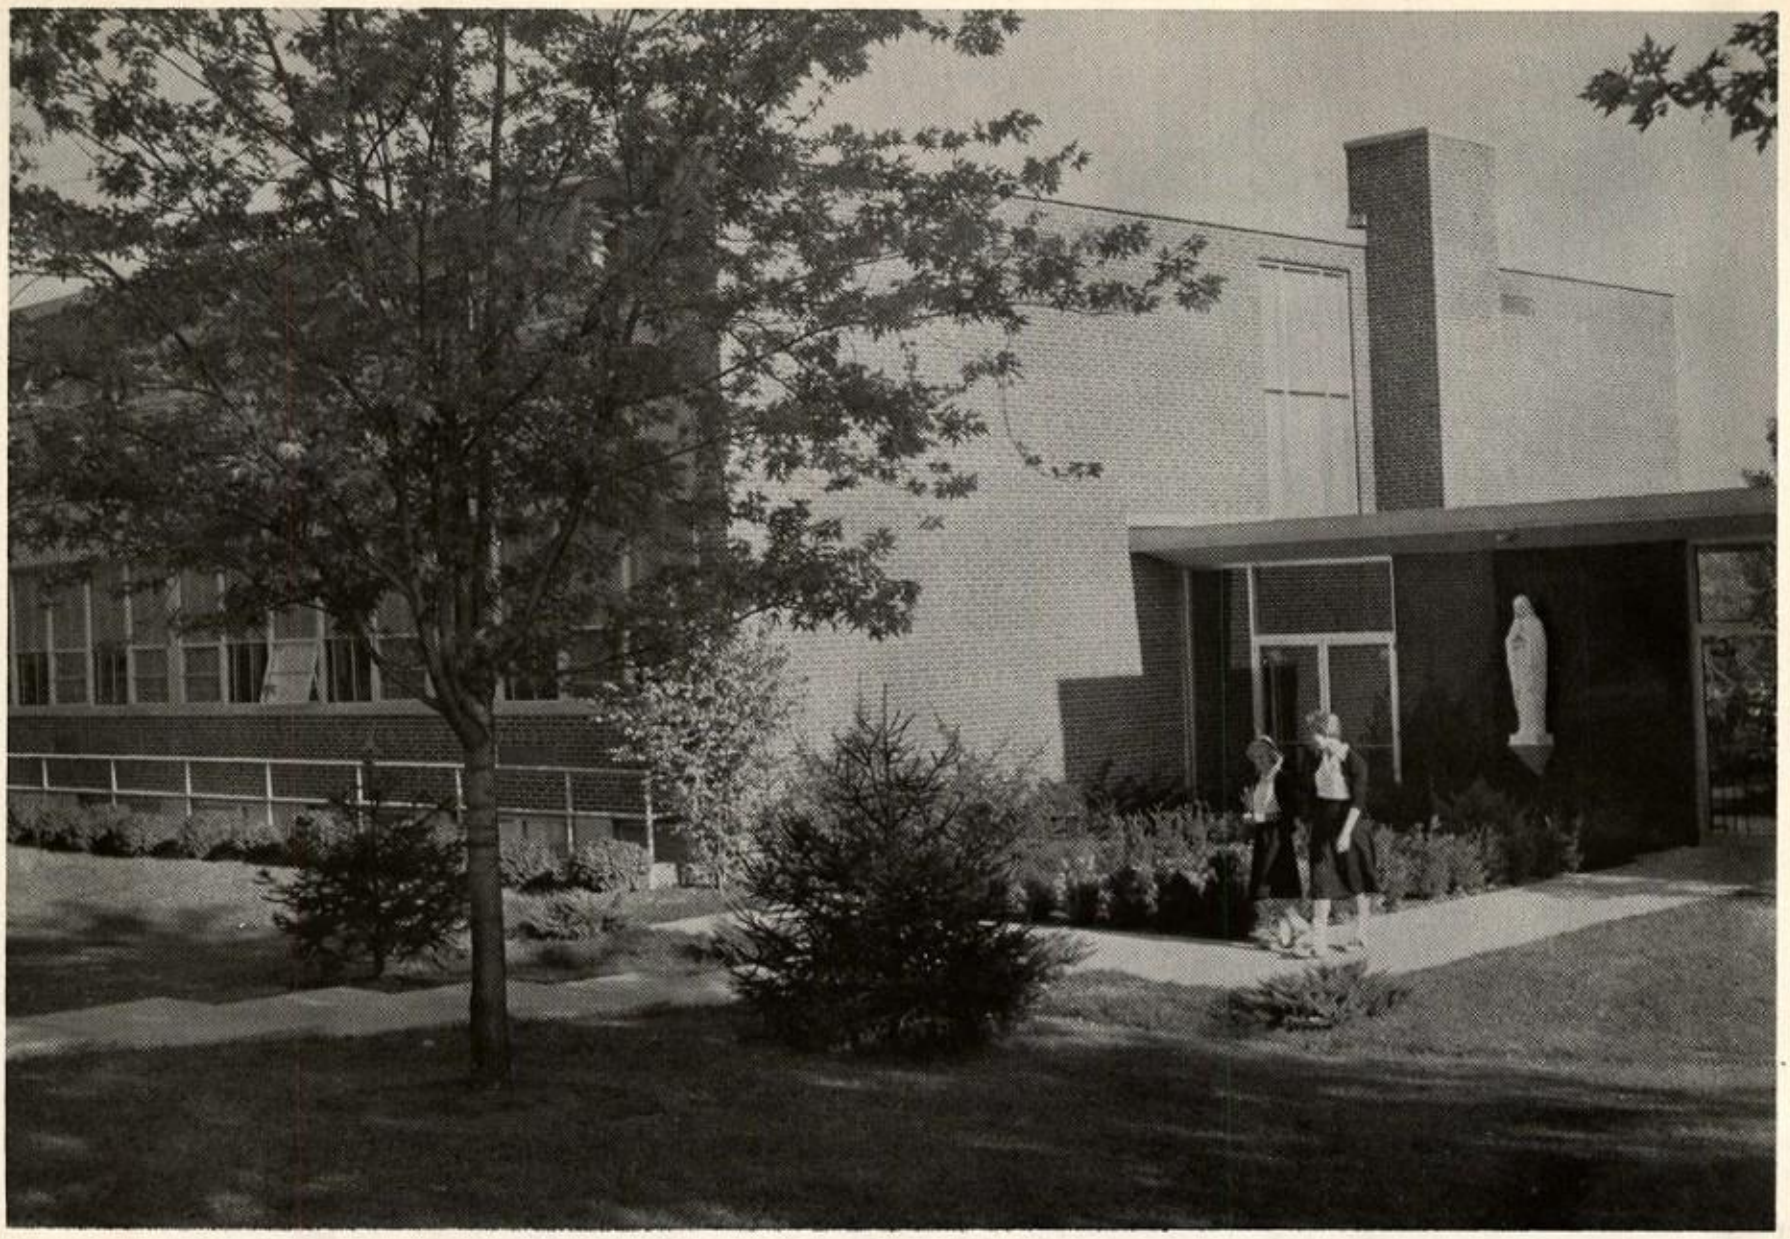
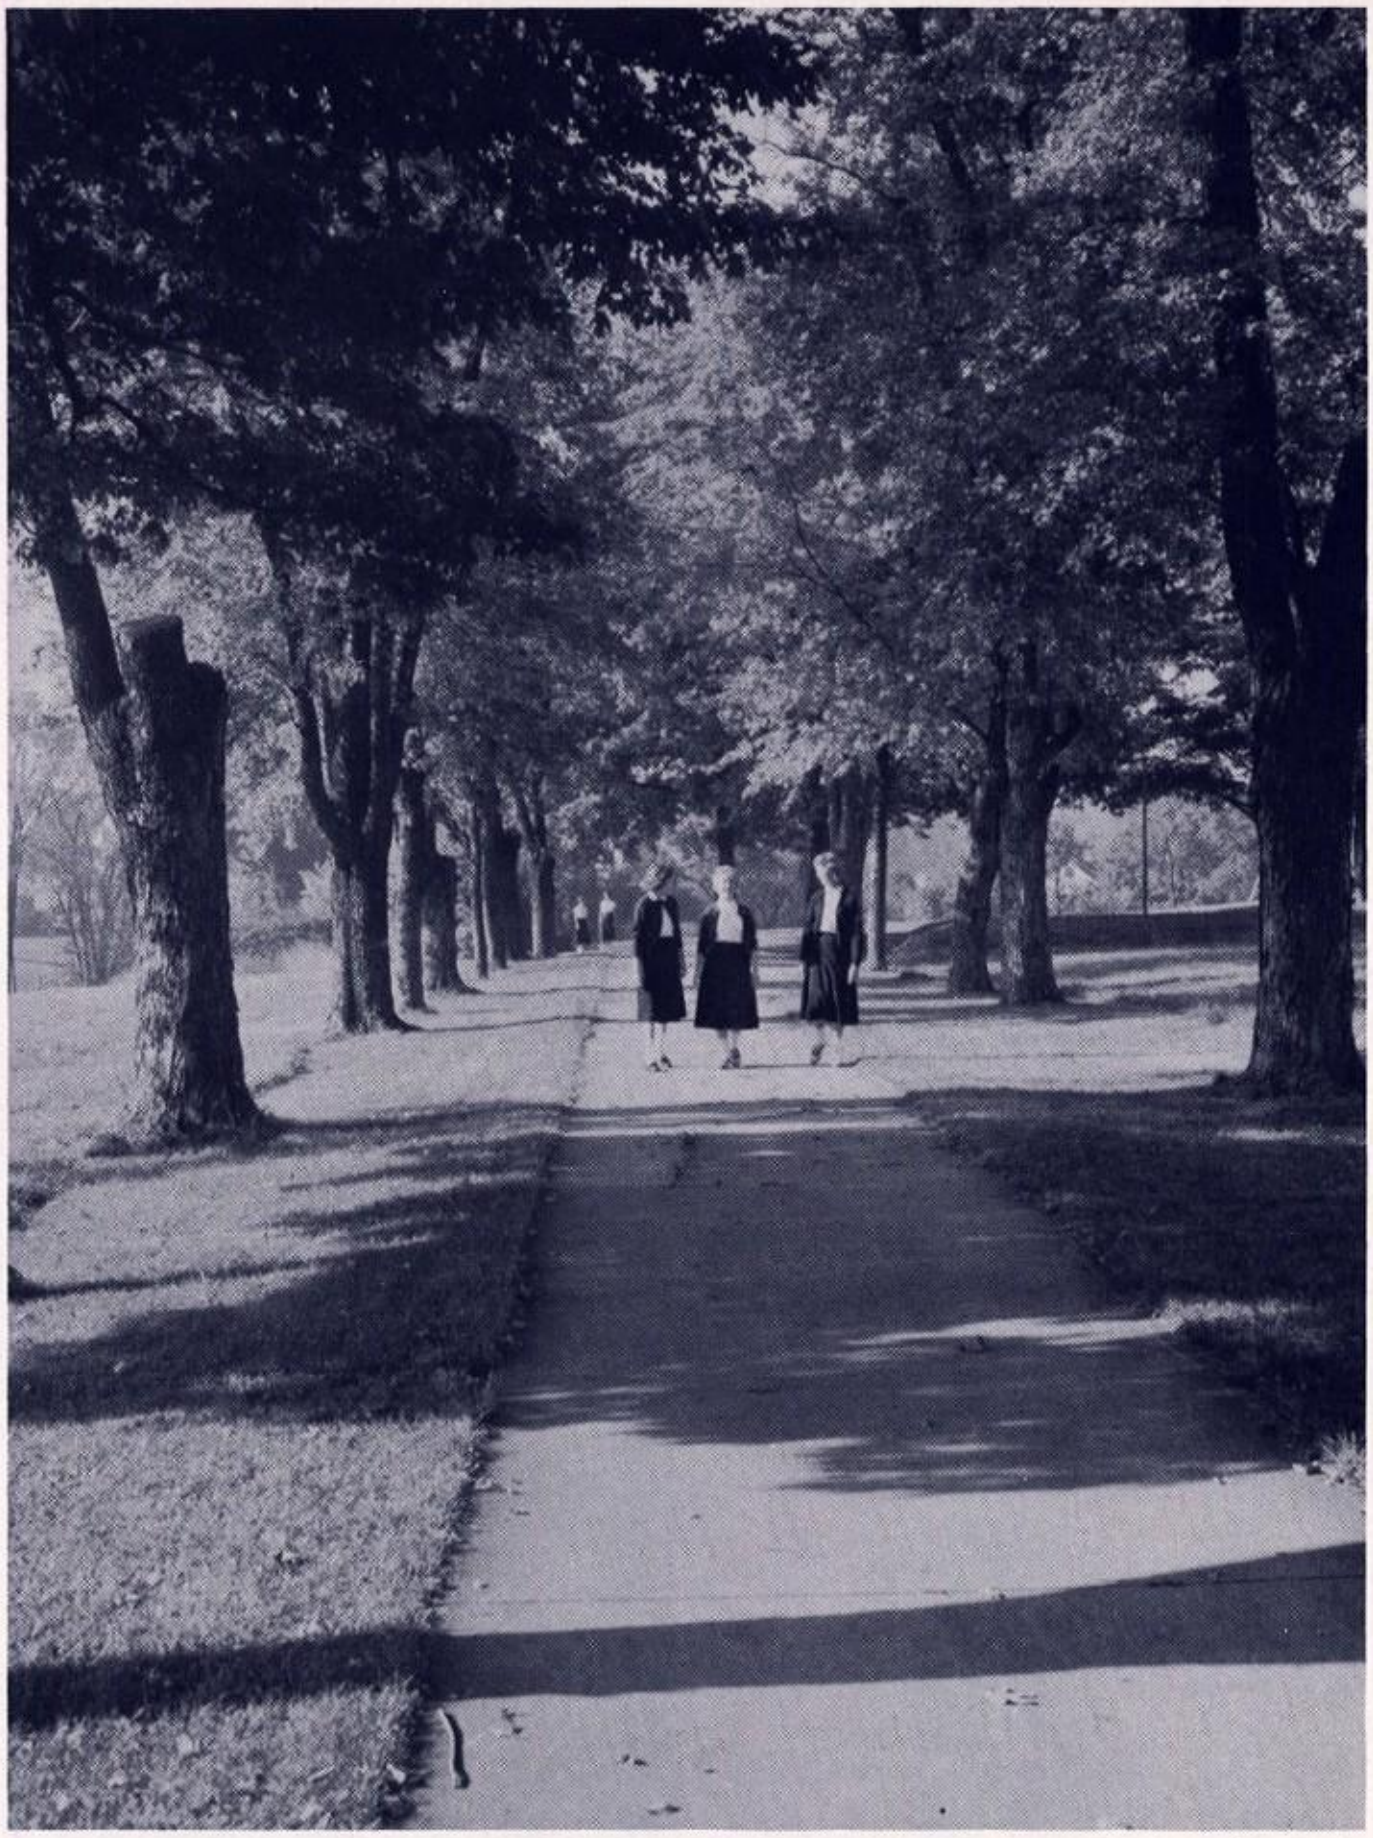
Mount Notre Dame High School is a continuation of the boarding school which began in Reading in 1860. Situated atop a tree-covered hill, M.N.D. offers a peaceful setting for her students to develop their appreciation for the intellectual and spiritual aspects of life. The chapel, with its beautiful marble altars, is a favorite place for prayer and meditation. In addition to the chapel, there are numerous shrines which provide an opportunity for out-door devotions to Our Lady. The most frequented are that of the Madonna and Our Lady of Fatima.

A typical day at M.N.D. begins with the familiar ascent up St. Mary's steps. The footsteps of the students echo through the halls as they travel from class to class in their quest for knowledge. Lunch-time brings a welcome break that enables us to fully enjoy the campus with its many pleasure spots. The noon-time itinerary of the girls is varied. It may include a visit to the Sacred Heart Statue, the near-by fish pond, or to the tennis courts.





In 1956 it was possible to make the transition from Mount Notre Dame Academy to Mount Notre Dame High School as a result of the transfer of the novitiate to the new building on Columbia Avenue.

As each school day ends you can see the girls hurrying home along the lovely shaded walks. The two most popular of these walks are the winding drive and the familiar "Maple Avenue."

A girl who knows that her parents stand behind her in her endeavors is a happy one, and prospers in that knowledge. Here at our school we know that we not only have the backing of our own parents, but that we also have the support of the parents of our fellow students. This is exemplified in the P.T.A. and Dad's Club, groups made up of the parents of the entire student body.

SODALITY

Bonnie Woebkenberg, Sodality Prefect, confers with the other officers, Judy Rolf and Mary Ann Albrinck.

Kathy Leicht, Sue Maly, and Linda Lahr singing "Big Daddy," were just a few of the sodalists who helped to make the Sodality talent show a huge success.

Under the able guidance of Sister Ann Michael, assisted by Bonnie Woebkenberg, Prefect, the Sodalists of Our Lady have undertaken many apostolic duties which complement their spiritual ones. The most significant event on the sodality calendar is the Act of Consecration by which those who have measured up to a strict training program consecrate themselves to Our Lady for one year.

At 3 o'clock on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, the study hall becomes the scene of another student council meeting. If we were to glance in on one of these gatherings, we would see Sister Julie, our Student Council Moderator, Joyce Moeggenberg, our President, and the representatives from each homeroom busily discussing the current problems or projects of Mount Notre Dame and her students.

This organization also promotes and sponsors the various student activities throughout the year. These tend to improve and strengthen the general school spirit among the students and provide many enjoyable hours for them.

Congratulations to the Student Council for a job well done.

The Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is a national organization of Catholic youth. The main objective of the Crusade is spiritual and material aid to Missionaries throughout the world. The student Crusaders follow a threefold program of prayer, study, and sacrifice for the Missions.

This year at Mount Notre Dame each homeroom carried out this program individually, but as a part of the whole unit. Each homeroom had a mission to pray for, write to, study about, and help materially.

Communism was the over-all theme of the whole unit. In our study of Communism we made use of books, filmstrips; we took part in discussions, and presented a skit about its objectives.

Father Henry J. Klocker, the national secretary of the C.S.M.C., spoke to our unit about the need for lay apostles in the missions.

The combined Junior and Sophomore Glee Clubs gave star performances in the "Songfest" on February 15. The concert opened with the "Salutation to Music" and the "Ave Maria" followed. The Sophomore group gave a splendid variety of selections from the well-known musicals—Oklahoma, The King and I, and South Pacific. The Junior group commemorated Victor Herbert's centenary, 1859 to 1959, by singing "March of the Toys," and "Romany Life."

Both Glee Clubs again united in the finale and sang the ever-famous "Syncopated Clock," the well-loved "You'll Never Walk Alone," and the inspiring tribute to our loved country, "Ode to America," by Noble Cain.

The enviable success of the Glee Clubs was due to the able direction of Sister Mary Thomas. Her constant and thorough help enabled the singers to display their talent in the superb "Songfest" and in other concerts throughout the year.

MUSIC

"There's music in the air." At any time during the day, the first, unsure notes of beginning musicians, or the sure resounding notes of an advanced student may be heard as they echo through the halls of Mount Notre Dame. In recent years, the melodious tones of many voice pupils have been added to the "music in the air." Their course of study is not always easy, but the final result is indeed most rewarding. Through the training of Sister Mary Thomas, Sister Mary Lawrence, and Sister Eugene Mary, music students find that, "It is in learning music that youthful hearts learn love."

ART

At M.N.D. students are given every opportunity to develop the various talents that God has given them. Some girls have been especially gifted with artistic ability, which needs only training to bring it to life. Though student artists may never achieve world renown, their personal work can be a great source of pleasure to everyone around them. Most important, however, is the sense of accomplishment that they themselves derive from their study. Under the guidance of Sister Regina, the art students learn from experience that "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Pictured above: G. Benken, G. Dunnett, J. James, S. Bause, J. Donovan, P. # THANKSGIVING DANCE

At Thanksgiving, 1958, the Juniors and Seniors, escorted by their dates, attended the Stardust Ball. The heavenly decorations, the twinkling music of Jim Villari's band plus the presence of all our close friends added to a very memorable evening.

FRIARHURST

In the congenial atmosphere of Friarhurst we spent a few short days away from the noise and rush of everyday living to give ourselves time and quiet to concentrate on some straight thinking and serious prayer. These brief hours were filled with the inspiring talks of our retreat master and with peaceful, sincere conversations with God and His Mother. The attractive grounds surrounding Friarhurst blended in with the serenity that we felt and also enjoyed. Each day began with Mass and Holy Communion in the beautiful chapel that is dedicated to Our Lady of the Angels.

To keep the pervading mood, we observed silence — "mind — think only retreat thoughts; tongue—listen to what God says; manner—eyes only on self and God." Our retreat renewed our fervor for God and impressed its message on our hearts.

DRAMATICS

The three one-act plays traditionally presented by the juniors were held this year on February 27 and 28. The casts, composed of both M.N.D. juniors and Xavier University students, outdid themselves in presenting three plays which were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the attentive audiences both nights.

The Play's the Thing and Introducing Mopsy, two hilarious comedies, were followed by a gripping story based on the Hungarian revolt, entitled The Voice in the Night. The plays, which were well cast and well acted, were under the direction of Tony Schnitt and Tom Gressler of Xavier. Two of the offerings—The Play's the Thing and The Voice in the Night—were written especially for our juniors by John Gutting of Xavier.

At 6:30 p.m. on May 6, twelve members of the senior class, accompanied by two chaperones, left the Union Terminal bound for Washington, D. C. Three fun-filled and educational days were spent in our nation's capital. Only a few among the many places they visited were the Capitol building, Mount Vernon, the Washington Monument, the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, the Lincoln Memorial, and the U. S. Marine Corps War Memorial.

TWELVE ANGRY WOMEN

Mary Lou's re-enactment of the moment of murder is just a little too realistic for Joyce Moeggenberg and Marcia Maugle, who restrain her forcibly.

On April 18, 19, 1959, Mount Notre Dame presented another high school spectacular called Twelve Angry Women. This play was based on the original production Twelve Angry Men by Reginald Rose.

Throughout the scenes the jurors were constantly meditating, fighting and reconstructing the actual crime in order to decide the guilt or innocence of a boy charged with murder in the first degree. In trying to arrive at a verdict, their own personal feelings and conflicts were revealed.

Thanks to our capable director, Mr. Herbison, the play was a great success.

SPRING FORMAL

The hearts of the Juniors and Seniors beat a little faster as they approached the Hartwell Country Club on May 15, 1959. The day of the Senior-Junior Spring Formal had been awaited for months.

The girls, lovely in their elegant formals, danced the night away with their handsome dates to the beautiful music of Cecil Young. The highlight of the evening was the coronation of Our Blessed Lady, during which the girls sang "Mother Beloved" and our school song. The remainder of the evening seemed short, because it was so enjoyable. One o'clock arrived all too soon for the couples who attended.

We will always have May 15 to look back to, for except for our souvenirs, "nothing now is left but majestic memory."

GRADUATION

"All the world's a stage,"
". . . one man in his lifetime plays many parts."

On June 7, 1959, the curtain rang down for the seniors on one of these parts. Graduation to the seniors meant not only receiving their diploma, leaving some of their old friends, but also wearing their long, white graduation dresses, which were to be the last of their kind at M.N.D. As each girl walked out of the auditorium, a bouquet of red roses making a vivid contrast to her white embossed nylon dress and her diploma in her hand, she took her final curtain call for a role that she would never again play.

Guest Speaker, Rev. Henry J. Klocker, National Secretary. C.S.M.C.

MARIE WELSCH, valedictorian

Dear "Little Sisters,"

Our last year at M.N.D. was your first. As we were completing our high school education, you were just beginning. Your first awkward steps and the newness of your freshman year now seem like a part of the distant past. The confidence that you have gained from a wealth of new friends and experiences has replaced your former feeling of uncertainty. (Remember, just as you needed a helping hand, so, too, will the incoming freshmen.)

As your "Big Sisters," we have enjoyed welcoming you to the Mount. It is our sincere hope that you have received as much pleasure from our social gatherings as we have. Through the guidance and good example given to you by the Sisters and students, you have received the necessary help to become true and loyal M.N.D. girls. Always strive for high ideals, so that Mount Notre Dame may be proud of you.

Dear Members of the Class of 1961,

Your sophomore year, we know, has been filled with many new experiences and carefree hours. The strangeness that you felt during your first year at Mount Notre Dame has been overcome, and in its place has come the feeling of belonging, of being an integral part of our school. Now, you are ready to take the important step from the world of underclassmen to that of upperclassmen—from the role of follower, to that of leader.

The success of the coming year will depend upon your loyalty and school spirit. As juniors, you will be looked to by the freshmen and sophomores for good example and guidance throughout all phases of school activity. You have responsibilities not only to the underclassmen but also to yourselves. Be sure to make the most of all the golden opportunities that will come to you during your last two years at M.N.D.

Dear Seniors of 1960,

As graduation draws near, we look back over our last year with mixed feelings of sadness and joy. This sadness comes from the realization that we shall soon be leaving all our cherished friends and classmates at Mount Notre Dame. On the other hand, our joy comes from the completion of one more phase of our education, one more step toward taking our place in the world. We view this last with courage and hope.

In your last year at the Mount, you will assume not only the dignity but the responsibility of a senior. Courtesy, good conduct, and cooperation should be very important to you. Let the underclassmen look up to you, the class of 1960, as the ideal of what Mount Notre Dame girls should be. You have the distinction of being the centenary class, and we are happy in your joy and pride as Mount Notre Dame's one hundredth graduating class.

And now, we, the Seniors, the graduating class of 1959, after having had four years of formation from the Sisters of Notre Dame, under the protection of Our Blessed Lady, feel that we are prepared to go forward. The highway of life beckons each of us. In reality, this road is only a continuation of the path that we have been following under the supervision of our parents and teachers. On our journey, we know that we shall encounter numerous detours. The valuable principles and ideals we have received at M.N.D. will enable us to recognize these road blocks, to surmount them, and to continue on the straight ways of life.

Dear Mother and Dad,

Words are inadequate to express the deep feeling of gratitude that I hold in my heart for all the loving care and guidance that you have given me through the years. As graduation approaches, I begin to understand and to appreciate all that you have done for me. Knowing that I have received every encouragement possible, I shall endeavor to make your dreams for me come true. All that I am, or ever hope to be, I owe to you.

Thank you, Mother and Dad, for everything.

Your loving daughter,
